Procedure Code, 1973 and c) Indian Evidence Act, 1872. Dr. Nirmala kumari, Dr. Manoj kumar V. Hiremath and others enquired about the Unitization, topics and prescribed books and the same was also detailed

Dr. Nirmala kumari suggested conducting orientation programme for the faculty handling the above courses (2023 Criminal Law Reforms to have better understanding and acquaint with the new enactments. Dr. Nataraju and other members agreed to it.

25.2.4 Syllabus updation of other courses;

English: Revision and restructuring of the English course Ly five years Programme (B.A. and B.B.A. LLB) was proposed by the Smt. Nandhini MS, Course Teacher. The changes were proposed as there were overlapping of topics in both English as well as the newly introduced course - Legal methods and Research. Dr. Nirmala kumari inquired whether legal maxims are covered in any syllabus and Smt. Sheela Ganesh replied that the topic is part of Legal Methods and Research.

Right to Information and IT laws: Syllabus revision of the Right to Information and IT laws course was placed by Sri. Jagadish AT, Course Teacher to include the newly emerging areas and the proposed Legislation as the salient features of the Digital India Act, the Data Protection laws and the limitations of the IT Act. Prof. P. Shivananda Bharathi and Dr. Nirmala kumar felt that the insertion of above topics makes the syllabus voluminous. Dr. Nirmala kumar inquired whether any syllabus content includes the topic on 'Cyber Investigation' as it is very important to handle and prevent cybercrimes. Smt. Sheela Ganesh replied that the topic is covered in Unit IV of Social Psychology syllabus but such course is not there for BBA and LLB Programmes.

Smt. Saijanya, Course Teacher- Competition Law proposed to bring changes in the syllabus by rearranging the topics among the topics however, Sri. Jagadish AT, Dr. S. Nataraju, Dr. Nirmala kumari, Dr. Manoj kumar and Moses Raj opined better to continue with the existing syllabus. However, Dr. Manoj kumari opined that the syllabus of competition law itself seems heavy. Finally, it was agreed by the members to retain the existing syllabus without further changes.

Smt. Saijanya, Course Teacher- Competition Law proposed to bring changes in the syllabus by rearranging the topics among to topics however, Sri. Jagadish AT, Dr. S. Nataraju, Dr. Nirmala kumari like Patent Agent Madrid Conventions, Performers Right, Commercialization of IPR. Smt. Asmathunisa Gr opined such topics are taught even without its specific mention and need not be specifically shown in the syllabus. Dr. Manoj kumar remarked that the above topics are though significant but not to be dealt in detail and an overview is sufficient. The members further suggested mentioning it as International framework and recent developments or International Conventions and TRIPs Framework. finally, consensus was arrived to retain the existing syllabus without Futher changis.

Decision: Approved.

25.3 Any other matter with the permission of the Chair
Dr. Manoj kumar opined that the nomenclature of the enactment to begin with 'the' and use the nomenclature 'Bill' wherever applicable in the syllabus.
Smt. Sheela Ganesh summarized the proceeding of the Student Academic Council meeting held on 8.11.24 and placed the 2023-24 report of feedback on curriculam obtained from students and other Stakeholders for discussion followed by its analysis. Since the report reflects that the syllabus is adequate and does not require any changes in the syllabus the same was accepted and action was taken accordingly.
Smt. Nandini MS proposed to rename the course - English to English and Legal Language offered to the 3years LL.B Programme, as it covers topics of Legal Language. The same was accepted by the members.
Decision: Approved

Sri. Jagadish AT proposed the Formal vote of thanks to the members for their active participation and valuable suggestions.
