Feedback Analysis:

From the feedback obtained from the students on Curriculum it is found that the students are satisfied with the overall aspects of Curriculum. Being an Autonomous Law College, the respective Statutory Bodies periodically revise, modify and introduce new course considering the contents updated from the structured feedback obtained from the students, feedback received during Students' Academic Council meeting apart from the feedback on curriculum from other stake holders'.

Action Taken:

The students' feedback on curriculum was discussed in the monthly staff meeting and since majority of the students are satisfied with the overall aspects of Curriculum, no substantial changes were proposed in the Board of Studies and other statutory bodies.
